PRAYERS AT EASTERTIDE

IN THE PANDEMIC

Be Still and know that I am God.

The God of Hosts is with us.

You are invited light a candle and say:

I light this candle to remind me that you are the light of the world.

May your light remove all darkness from my life. Amen.

In light of the Government guidance around non-essential contact, the Archbishops of Canterbury and York have issued advice that public worship is suspended until further notice. So, this resource is designed you to sustain your prayer life or to develop a new one.

Morning Prayer

Make a habit of starting your prayers in particular way, perhaps lighting a candle and sitting quietly to still yourself.

O Lord, open our [my] lips and our [my] mouth shall proclaim your praise.

The night has passed, and the day lies open before us;
let us pray with one heart and mind.

The Lord is good, a strong refuge when trouble comes.

God is close to those who trust in him. Nahum 1.7

Lord God, you are always with me.

You are with me in the day and in the night.

You are with me when I'm happy and when I'm sad. You are with me when I'm healthy and when I am ill.

You are with me when I am peaceful and when I am worried.

Today I am feeling [name how you are feeling] because [reasons you are feeling this way].

Help me to remember that you love me and are with me in everything today. Amen.

Lord, may your Spirit guide me to seek your loving presence more and more, for it is there that I find rest and refreshment from this busy world.

Pause for reflection as you offer the day to God.

Spend a few moments acknowledging how you really are - remember that God is with you and loves the real you.

Dear Lord, grant that I may live as you intended, with complete confidence in your loving care.

As we [I] rejoice in the gift of this new day,
so may the light of your presence,

O God, set our [my] heart on fire with love for you;
now and for ever. Amen.

Be Still and know that I am God.
The God of Hosts is with us.

Bible Reading

You may wish to say the Easter Verses below, or Psalm 23, Psalm 16 or Psalm 139.

Easter Anthem

- 1 Christ our passover has been sacrificed for us:
so let us celebrate the feast,
- 2 not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness:
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5.7b, 8

- 3 Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
death has no more dominion over him.
- 4 In dying he died to sin once for all:
in living he lives to God.
- 5 See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6.9-11

- 6 Christ has been raised from the dead:
the first fruits of those who sleep.
- 7 For as by man came death:
by man has come also the resurrection of the dead;
- 8 for as in Adam all die:
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15.20-22

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Lord, ever watchful and faithful,
we look to you to be our defence and we lift our hearts to know your help;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

But now thus says the Lord, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour. Isaiah 43.1-3a

Sunday Morning Prayer

Eternal God, you are the light of the minds that know you, the joy of the hearts that love you, and the strength of the wills that serve you:

grant us so to know you that we may truly love you, so love you that we may truly serve you, whose service is perfect freedom. Amen.

After Augustine of Hippo (430)

For the Christian community

We are not people of fear: we are people of courage.

We are not people who protect our own safety: we are people who protect our neighbours' safety.

We are not people of greed: we are people of generosity.

We are your people God, giving and loving, wherever we are, whatever it costs

For as long as it takes wherever you call us. Amen.

Barbara Glasson, President of the Methodist Conference

Monday Morning Reading

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.' Thomas said to him, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?' Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14.1-6

Monday Morning Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

A Franciscan prayer

From one who is ill or isolated

O God, help me to trust you, help me to know that you are with me,

Be Still and know that I am God.

The God of Hosts is with us.

Morning Prayer

help me to believe that nothing can separate me from your love revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Tuesday Morning Reading

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you. Philippians 4.8-9

Tuesday Morning Prayer

Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost;
to fight and not to heed the wounds;
to toil and not to seek for rest;
to labour and not to seek for any reward,
save that of knowing that we do your will. Amen.

Ignatius of Loyola (1556)

For hospital staff and medical researchers

Gracious God,
give skill, sympathy and resilience
to all who are caring for the sick,

Wednesday Morning Reading

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. Colossians 3.16,17

Wednesday Morning Prayer

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits that you have won for us,
for all the pains and insults you have borne for us.
Most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,
may we know you more clearly,
love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly,
day by day. Amen. Richard of Chichester

For those who are ill

Merciful God, we entrust to your tender care
those who are ill or in pain, knowing that whenever danger threatens

Thursday Morning Reading

You are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

Ephesians 2.19-22

Thursday Morning Prayer

God of compassion,
be close to those who are ill, afraid or in isolation.
In their loneliness, be their consolation;
in their anxiety, be their hope; in their darkness, be their light;
through him who suffered alone on the cross,
but reigns with you in glory,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God,
from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed:
kindle, I pray, in the hearts of all,
the true love of peace and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

Friday Morning Reading

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Romans 19.9-12

Friday Morning Prayer

Goodness is stronger than evil; Love is stronger than hate; Light is stronger than darkness; Life is stronger than death; Victory is ours through Him who loved us. Amen.

Archbishop Desmond Tutu

Lord Jesus Christ,
you taught us to love our neighbour,
and to care for those in need as if we were caring for you.
In this time of anxiety,
give us strength to comfort the fearful, to tend the sick, and to assure the isolated of our love, and your love,
for your name's sake. Amen.

Saturday Morning Reading

He said to his disciples, 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well. Luke 12.22-31

Saturday Morning Prayer

Lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth.
Lead us from despair to hope, from fear to trust.
Lead us from hate to love, from war to peace.
Let peace fill our hearts, our world, our universe;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for peace used by Mother Theresa

Keep us, good Lord,
under the shadow of your mercy in this time of uncertainty and distress.
Sustain and support the anxious and fearful and lift up all who are brought low;
that we may rejoice in your comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Every Day

Almighty and everlasting God, we thank you that you have brought us safely to the beginning of this day.
Keep us from falling into sin or running into danger; order us in all our doings and guide us to do always what is righteous in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Morning Prayer

On this day that the Lord has made,
let us pray for the people he has redeemed.

That we may live as those who believe in the triumph of the cross: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That all people may receive the good news of his victory:
Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That those born to new life in the waters of baptism
may know the power of his resurrection: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That those who suffer pain and anguish
may find healing and peace in the wounds of Christ: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That in the undying love of Christ
we may be united with all who have died in the faith of Christ: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer.

Let us commend the world, in which Christ rose from the dead, to the mercy and protection of God.

Silence may be kept.

The Collect of the day or the following is said

Lord of all life and power,
who through the mighty resurrection of your Son
overcame the old order of sin and death
to make all things new in him:
grant that we, being dead to sin
and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
may reign with him in glory;
to whom with you and the Holy Spirit
be praise and honour, glory and might,
now and in all eternity. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

for ever. Amen.

(or)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Monday Reading

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more.

On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. Zeph 3.14-18

Tuesday Reading

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and, as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. 1 Cor 15.42-44a,47-49

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Colossians 3.1-4

Thursday Reading

As the two disciples came near the village to which they were going, Jesus walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?'

Saturday Reading

I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands, and in the midst of the lampstands I saw one like the Son of Man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden sash across his chest. When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he placed his right hand on me, saying, 'Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, and the living one. I was dead, and see, I am alive for ever and ever; and I have the keys of Death and of Hades.'

Night Prayer

Almighty God,

I have sinned against you, through my own fault,
in thought, and word, and deed,
and in what we have left undone.

I am truly sorry and repent of all my sins.
For your Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive me all that is past;
and grant that I may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen.

Pause in quiet to receive and accept God's forgiveness.

have mercy on me, a sinner. (Repeat) The Jesus Prayer

Friday Evening Reading

God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him.

I Thessalonians 5.9,10

Friday Evening Prayer

I am giving you worship with all my life,
I am giving you obedience with all my power, I am giving you praise with all my strength,
I am giving you honour with all my speech. I am giving you love with all my heart,
I am giving you affection with all my sense, I am giving you my being with all my mind, I am giving you my soul, O most high and holy God. Praise to the Father,

Praise to the Son, Praise to the Spirit, The Three in One.

adapted from Alexander Carmichael, Carmina Gadelica (1900)

Saturday Evening Reading

Jesus said, 'I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.'

John 8.12

Saturday Evening Prayer

Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,

Be Still and know that I am God.
The God of Hosts is with us.

Night Prayer

Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me.
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

from St Patrick's Breastplate

Every Evening

Bring to God someone you have met or remembered today and for whom you want to pray.

Bring to God someone who is hurting tonight and needs your prayer.

Bring to God a troubled situation in our world tonight.

On this day that the Lord has made,
let us pray for the people he has redeemed.

That we may live as those who believe in the triumph of the cross: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That all people may receive the good news of his victory:
Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That those born to new life in the waters of baptism
may know the power of his resurrection: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer

That those who suffer pain and anguish
may find healing and peace in the wounds of Christ: Lord, in
your mercy hear my prayer

That in the undying love of Christ
we may be united with all who have died in the faith of Christ: Lord, in your mercy hear my prayer.

Let us commend the world, in which Christ rose from the dead, to the mercy and protection of God.

Be Still and know that I am God.
The God of Hosts is with us.

Night Prayer

Silence may be kept.

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That you, with steadfast love, would keep Your watch around us while we sleep.
Tonight we pray especially for [names family or friends who are affected by Coronavirus] and the people of [country or place which is affected by Coronavirus].
Please give skill and wisdom to all who are caring for them.
Amen.

Be present, O merciful God,
and protect us through the silent hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this fleeting world,
may rest upon your eternal changelessness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Visit this place, O Lord, we pray, and drive far from it the snares of the enemy;
may your holy angels dwell with us in peace, and may your blessing be always upon us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the day or the following is said

Lord of all life and power,
who through the mighty resurrection of your Son
overcame the old order of sin and death
to make all things new in him:
grant that we, being dead to sin
and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
may reign with him in glory;

Be Still and know that I am God.
The God of Hosts is with us.

Night Prayer

to whom with you and the Holy Spirit
be praise and honour, glory and might,
now and in all eternity. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and
for ever. Amen.

(or)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

God our Father, by whose mercy
the world turns safely into darkness and returns again to light:
we place in your hands our unfinished tasks,
our unsolved problems, and our unfulfilled hopes,
knowing that only what you bless will prosper.

To your love and protection
we commit each other and all those we love,

Be Still and know that I am God.
The God of Hosts is with us.

Night Prayer

knowing that you alone are our sure defender, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Conclusion

In peace we will lie down and sleep;
for you alone, Lord, make us dwell in safety.

Stay with me, O God, this night, so that by your strength I may rise with the new day to rejoice in the resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The Lord bless us and watch over us;
The Lord make his face to shine upon us and be gracious to us;
The Lord look kindly upon us and give us peace. Amen.
