

Parish Acts of Remembrance 2020 Corhampton & Meonstoke and Exton

God is our refuge and strength;
a very present help in trouble. Psalm 46.1

The presiding minister says

Stir up your power, O God,
and come among us.
Heal our wounds,
calm our fears
and give us peace;
through Jesus our Redeemer.

All Amen.

Remembrance

The presiding minister says

Let us remember before God,
and commend to his sure keeping:
those who have died for their country in conflict;
those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

All We will remember them.

(The Last Post or single toll of a church bell)

The Silence

(The Reveille or five tolls of a church bell)

Kohima Epitaph

When you go home
tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow
we gave our today.

Commemoration

Remember, Lord, your people, who cry to you in their grief.
Remember the fallen in battle, and the innocents who have died.
Remember your power to heal and save.

Prayers

For the departed

Lord,

welcome into your calm and peaceful kingdom
those who have departed out of this present life to be with you.
Grant them rest and a place with the spirits of the just;
and give them the life that knows no age,
the reward that passes not away.

All Amen.

For those who suffer

God of our joys and sorrows,
comfort the exiled, console the oppressed
and bring us in joy to our true home,
where your faithful servants sing your praise.

All Amen.

For the leaders of the nations

Go before us, O Lord,
with the blessings of your goodness
and guide all those you call to authority
in the way of your justice,
the knowledge of your liberty
and the wisdom of your gentleness.

All Amen.

For faith

How generous is your goodness, O God,
how great is your salvation,
how faithful is your love.
Help us to trust in you in trial,
to praise you in deliverance
and to rejoice before you with overflowing hearts.

All Amen.

Commitment

This prayer may be said by the minister or another single voice, or by the whole congregation.

Lord God our Father,
we pledge ourselves
to serve you and all your peoples,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of your name.
Guide us by your Spirit;
give us wisdom;
give us courage;
give us hope;
and keep us faithful
now and always.

All Amen.

Ending

May the Lord bless us and watch over us,
may the Lord make his face shine upon us and be gracious to us,
may the Lord look kindly on us and give us peace. Num 6.24–26
